

Clouds of Change

I feel the clouds of change a comin' - a dreamtime vision I see ...

It's a fair weather weekend. The sun is shining and not a cloud to be seen. People are strolling about enjoying the park just like me. Feeling an intuitive nudge to set my gaze skyward, I notice clouds clustering. Like a puzzle forming, shapes of dolphin clouds begin filling the sky. It surely beats any and all types of entertainment ever seen before. Amazing, way cool, and majorly bizarre!

All the while this is happening I find it strange that no one, other than me, is drawn to looking at the sky. How can it be that I am thoroughly transfixed and no one else seems to be? While the dolphin clouds continue forming, I am connecting with what is going on a very deep intuitive level. Somehow I feel as though I had been handed secret instructions about this time long, long ago. And now the potential moment had arrived and I was prepared to do my part.

Like Gabriel blowing his horn, the gathering of the dolphin tribe had appeared to signal a new time at hand, and I knew just what to do. Recognizing the significance of this vision, I began gathering the people nearby. With a zeal that cannot be contained, I began dancing and pointing towards the heavens and singing, "The Time is Now, Look up to the Sky."

With hundreds of eyes now focused above on the dolphin clouds the most unbelievable happened. Two-by-two all the shapeshifting dolphin clouds became real live dolphins. In their high-spirited, magical, beaming way they are actually swimming in the sky. It may be difficult for you to imagine, but join the wave and try. What we knew before as sky has now become the sea. This mindboggling interplay is divine intervention changing up the world of illusion that we humans have grown to expect day after day.

Given new eyes to see the entirety of the world, the people of earth are all unified and partaking in this marvel of monumental proportion. Everyone is dancing in the street in honor of the shift of ages. Just like that, in the blink of an eye, the world we once knew has melted away. All of us are celebrating in divine rapture. Yes, everyone! To top it off, after long hours of jubilee a most magnificent 6-tier rainbow, with colors more brilliant than ever seen, has arched its way across the sky.

Needless to say, this adventure has shaken everything up. The very ground we stand upon, the very thoughts we think, the way in which we have lived has transformed. This day marks a miraculous turning point for the Greater Good of All. This world has been awakened and the earth reborn. Once and for all, at long last, ALL of HUMANITY has opened their eyes. ALL KINGDOMKIND ☺ not just humankind ☺ have joined together in dancing the New Dance 🌍

Some folks speak of the end of the world, others a new beginning.

Many are waiting for Christ to appear.

What if the messenger of dolphin were to fill the sky?

Surely that would be an outrageous surprise!

And for celebration dessert

The angels are serving us humble pie!!!!
